

What's On Stage at the Rattlestick

Join our 2nd Annual Fun Race— Fund Drive

November/December 2005

Save the Date: December 3, 1 - 3 PM. Party to follow

Be one of many theater enthusiasts who will be zipping around the West Village on a scavenger hunt for charity.

The event will take place from 1pm-3pm, at which time we will all meet up and give out prizes at a party. All money raised through this race will benefit Rattlestick Playwrights Theater as we continue to support the creation, development and production of new plays.

Bill Bowers in IT GOES WITHOUT SAYING
developed with and directed by MARTHA BANTA

A 75 minute joy ride, Bill shares funny, heartbreaking, and unbelievable true stories from his career as an actor and mime, and of his lifelong exploration of the role silence plays in all our lives. Compared to the work of Claudia Shear, Lisa Kron, and David Sedaris, the show is an autobiographical tour-de-force.

3 Nights Only! DECEMBER 10, 11 and 12th @ 8pm
$15 with code RAT15 (reg. $20), visit www.smarttix.com

THURSDAY DECEMBER 8: LADIES & GENTLEMEN: A Celebration of Songwriting Collaborations. An evening of all-acoustic duets. Admission $10. Check back at our website to sign up or for updated information on the performers!
