Edwina Spoonapple will do about anything to be a part of the Kalamazoo Advice-a-palooza Festival. When a talent scout comes to town, Edwina knows just what to do! Her very own musical, performed "live" from the family garage. Surely that talent scout will find her! With help from Becky, the perky cheerleader, Kelli, the cool, sophisticated ballerina, Annie, the girl-scout cookie-selling champion, the Vanderploenk triplets, Bobby, the befuddled new kid, and the helplessly, hopelessly lovestruck Scott, they offer advice on everything from birthday party etiquette to the proper way to set a table (salad fork, fork, plate, knife, spoon).

Subscribe to Rattlestick's exciting 2006-07 Season Today!

Rattlestick's 12th season promises to be our most exciting and ambitious to date. Full of heart, our mainstage season will begin with writer/performer Bill Bower's It Goes Without Saying, developed with and directed by Martha Banta (September/October), and continues with Roberto Aguirre-Sacasa's (Based on a Totally True Story) Dark Matters, directed by Trip Cullman (The Last Sunday in June), (November/December), and, finally, Lucy Thurber's (Where We're Born) Stay (February/March), directed by Jackson Gay (The Intelligent Design of Jenny Chow).

As a subscriber, you will receive tickets to all three mainstage productions, with the ability to exchange your seats up until 24 hours before the performance. You also will receive invitations to readings, special discounts to our preview benefits and other added Rattlestick events, as well as complimentary tickets to attend other special events throughout the season at the theater.
