

What's On Stage at the Rattlestick

Lucy Thurber's Stay Comes to Rattlestick

February 2007

A new play by Lucy Thurber
Directed by Jackson Gay

Perfs: Wed - Sat. @ 8pm; Sun @ 7 pm
Limited $20 senior and student rush tickets available
Strictly Limited Engagement: Through April 15

Stay, a haunting and beautiful new play by playwright Lucy Thurber (Where We're Born) and directed by Jackson Gay (The Intelligent Design of Jenny Chow), is the story of a young writer who, in the darkest moments of her youth, found an angel who gave her the words to survive. Having gone on to success as a writer, she must now learn to share this beautiful gift with others, all the while struggling to define and accept herself without the crutch of her muse and savior.

Graphic Design: Ola Maslik

The cast includes: Jenny Maguire (ANON, Acts of Mercy), Sam Rosen (Ham Lake), Thomas Sadoski (Reckless, Where We're Born) Maggie Siff (Frank's Home, Ruby Sunrise) and Jess Weixler ("Teeth," - 2007 Sundance special jury acting award).

Tuesday March 13 Benefit Night out at Stay

For less than the price of a Broadway show, you can spend an evening making new friends meeting our playwright and director as well as some prior Rattlestick alums, while enjoying a pre-show party with wine (new wine sponsor, William Hill Estates) and hors d'oeuvres at a local restaurant (A.O.C) and then a special performance of Stay. Tickets are $100 or $150 for the evening.

New Initiative: Special $15 Preview Offer for Stay

For the next three weeks, you can purchase your preview tickets to see Lucy Thurber's new play, Stay, for only $15. This is a new experimental initiative and, since we don't have a sponsor underwriting this special offer, we can only offer this special ticket price for a limited time and for preview performances (March 11—March 18). We hope you can make it...
